Vision

Caring Communities,
Working Together
Leading the Way

Mission

We are professional and dedicated providers of long term care.

Within the continuum of care, we meet the needs of Sarnia and surrounding communities through progressive leadership, compassionate care and small town community traditions.

As our customers, you are offered a variety of choices that will meet your individual needs in a safe, supportive and home-like environment.

Values

At Sumac Lodge LTC Centre, we believe in:

- Recognizing the uniqueness of each individual,
- Treating all persons with dignity and respect,
- Celebrating life,
- Fostering family-like relationships among all staff, residents and their families,
- Providing a creative, caring environment for all our residents,
- Resident and Family involvement in care and decision making,

Sumac Lodge is a bright and home-like residence surrounded by gardens, trees, a fishpond and secure outdoor areas.

This is the residents' home and we want them and their family and friends to feel welcome and comfortable.

We have a dedicated and caring team committed to promoting and ensuring the resident's rights of:

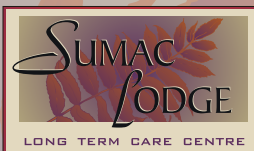

Dignity
Respect
Privacy &
Self-Determination.

If you need information about the admission and placement process, or if you would like to apply for placement to Sumac Lodge Long Term Care Centre, you should contact the Community Care Access Centre (CCAC).

Applications for admission cannot be taken directly at the home or by the home's staff.
